You Are Invited

October 27, 2009

Registration 9 am

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to attend the official unveiling and Commemoration of the Washington Oaks Gardens State Park Historic District. This historic celebration will take place on Tuesday, October 27th, 2009, the 135th Anniversary of the birth of Owen D. Young, the "Gentleman of Washington Oaks".

Registration will begin at 9:00 am at the Park. At 10:00, there will be a Ribbon Cutting followed by the Historic District Commemorative Program that places the home and gardens of Louise and Owen Young on the National Registry of Historic Places.

There will be a special "Salute to Friends, Volunteers and Park Staff" for their efforts in completing the renovation of Mr. Young's Office and the Grand Opening of the Gift Shop. Additionally, we will announce the kick-off of the "Campaign for Funds for Historic District Improvements".

There will be entertainment, refreshments and period transportation for tours of Old A1A and the Historic District.

We hope that you will mark your calendar for October 27th and make plans to attend this memorable event at Washington Oaks Gardens State Park.
